The Promoting R-Valuation of second-hand useE project

In April 2024, our partnership with the R-Value project met in Kraków, Poland. During this meeting, we had the opportunity to discuss how our work is progressing in this project.

We were excited about the progress made and looked forward to discussing the results of the pilot sessions.

Each of our partners has been actively involved in piloting providing crucial feedback that informs our development process.

Piloting Reports and Feedback

Each of our partners has been actively involved in piloting toolkit prepared, providing key feedback that influences our development process.

Each partner shared their experiences of the pilot, highlighting successes and challenges encountered, providing a practical overview of the tools in action and sharing user feedback.

Next steps

Final TPM in Czech Republic

Mark your calendars for September, when we will hold our final Transnational Project Meeting in the Czech Republic. This will be a key event for finalising our project.
